Key rules of brainstorming

To run a smooth and productive session

Stay in topic.

Encourage wild ideas.

Defer judgment.

Listen to others.

Go for volume.

If possible, be visual.

Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping

The screenshot shows a Mural workspace titled "Brainstorm and idea prioritization". The workspace is divided into several sections:

- Brainstorm: A section for writing down ideas that come to mind.
- Group Ideas: A section for taking time sharing ideas while clustering similar or related notes on the page.
- Prioritize: A section for taking time sharing ideas while clustering similar or related notes on the page.
- Facilitate: A section for running a session.
- Share: A section for sharing the session.

The workspace also includes a sidebar with icons for various tools and a bottom bar with a search bar and system icons.

Step-3: Idea Prioritization

Brainstorm and idea prioritization

Group ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas and clustering similar or related ideas as you go. Once all ideas are shared, have each person go back to their ideas and cluster them into groups. You can also use sticky notes, try and see if you can break it up into smaller sub-groups.

Prioritize

You have shared all of the ideas, so now it's time to decide what's important. Rank your ideas based on what's most important to you. Use the matrix to decide which ideas are important and which are feasible.

After you collaborate

You can report the results of the ideas to your team or to your manager. You can also use the results to decide which ideas to implement.

Quick actions

- Share the ideas - Share the ideas with your team or manager.
- Report the ideas - Report the ideas to your manager.

Keep meeting focused
